Your comments can matter. Help get us heard!

I have a new site for my SUE Speaks Podcast that's almost finished and about to go public, and I want to ask a favor of my mailing list to make comments on the episodes now, before we launch.

For years, I've been looking for how mutual concern can become as important to us as our self-interest is now. I got deeply involved with the crop circle phenomenon when I saw scientific evidence of another intelligence, somehow, somewhere, interacting with us. Discovering the existence of something other than us that can think and design would create a worldwide engagement to try to figure out what was going on, and that would be the beginning of the kind of worldwide cooperation we sorely need.

The purpose of the podcast, where I search with my guests for other "evolutionary ideas," isn't to stand on a soapbox but to provoke us to think together. It will encourage participation on the new site, when we go public, if there already are comments that have been made, so please be a listener and add yours.

Here's to joining together to create the more beautiful world our hearts know is possible...

Make comments on the new podcast site now!
