You're invited to a Think Tank!

Calling Advocates for an Enlightened Worldview

Sunday, January 12th @ 3:00 pm
West Hollywood, CA

I'm putting together a coalition of thinkers, creatives, rabble-rousers, and mavericks of all stripes who share the goal of changing our global paradigm from being based on greed to being based on compassion.

At this gathering, ideas will be offered and sought to create the more beautiful world our hearts know is possible. How can we change the world? CAN we change the world? If you are a deep thinker who's passionate about shifting our worldview, let's put our heads together!
