How To Be Happy

HYEPIN IM

Episode 17

Founder of FACE
Faith and Community Empowerment

Be charmed by Hyepin Im!

In my podcast, I talk to people about what could create a system-change where all our challenges would be best addressed in the cooperative world we need to become. With threats now to the very survival of humanity it can't be pie in the sky to think big, and Hyepin Im, whose advocacy is for happiness and who has concrete tips for how to live a happy life, speaks to what could create a transformation.

Hyepin is a board member of many organizations and her opinions have appeared in the Los Angeles Times and the Washington Post. She's a frequent speaker on CNN and NPR and she has presented at conferences at the White House, the U.S. Department of Labor, and more. This all came about after she left the money-handling she did in the corporate world and created FACE, her powerful nonprofit, and I think of Hyepin as some girl-next-door enlightened sage.
